Dear Miss Whitree: -

Pills at home to be sent you should you want more - and upon receipt of your desire - I wrote man to mail them to you - so I feel you have them by this time.

I am so grateful that they give you relief - I fear if they did fail - I would change - of course I am glad too that the doctor man is proving

Helpful - And that the Summer is wearing away
And I shall be glad to have you again near me so I can look after you - I know it is wiser for you to remain until cool weather if possible - But my heart has certainly ached for you this Summer - in your loneliness and frail health - But you have stirred along dear fine woman - as you are - Dr. Thib has been very ill with severe dys-

Pandick's - but is better now.
Persons he knows he ought not to have any opportunity - but "it must be the tail of it" -

Mrs. Thayer sends you her kindest wishes. She is very frail - has asthma continuously - She remains here until Sept 15th - I feel it is wiser -

I go this week <sup>Friday</sup> - am now at the hospital Saturday at 9 A.M. - I have enjoyed the freedom very much - but I am always ready I enter the train again! -

Thank you for keeping me informed about yourself. Knowing all - I would be always - from to be kept in ignorance this a most kind kindness -

Love very always -
Your own
Florence
